Napa Valley Genealogy Society's UPCOMING PROGRAMS

Mark your calendars

Sept 16, 2010 "What Did You Do on Your Summer Vacation" Members will share their vacation research tips and give us an incite into their vacation travels. Did anyone find a long lost cemetery plot or an elusive relative? Come join us and find out.

Senior Center, Thursday, evening 7:30 PM 1500 Jefferson, Napa, CA

Oct 21, 2010 "Roundtable Discussion or Jackpots and Failures" Bring your albums, problems, questions, How-to's and How-Do-I's to this informal gathering. This is a great opportunity to learn from the experiences of others. Everyone can participate and you may even find suggestions which can help you with your genealogy research.

Senior Center, Thursday, evening 7:30 PM 1500 Jefferson, Napa, CA

Nov 18, 2010 No Program, off for the Holiday

Dec 16, 2010 No Program, off for the Holiday

A Message from our President

Our annual Fund Raising Event and Social in August was an enjoyable social evening at the Napa Senior Center. The hors d'oeuvres and salads were excellent. The pizza, drinks and cake were provided by the Society this year and were enjoyed by all in attendance.

The first prize of 50 bottles of wine was won by, member
Phyllis Boyson of Napa, CA.

The remaining prizes are as follows;

Second Prize, went to member, Duane Murray, Ashland, OR

Third Prize, went to Keith Peiper, Napa, CA

Fourth Prize, went to Francis Cioppa, Rochester, NY

Fifth Prize, went to member, Sharon Marangoni, Napa, CA

Sixth Prize, went to Elane Osteen, Gladewater, TX

Seventh Prize, went to Gene Peters, Pacifica, CA

Eighth Prize, went to member, Joan Barber, Napa, CA

Ninth Prize, went to member, Nancy Brennan, Napa, CA

Tenth Prize, went to Glenn Mattila, Napa, CA

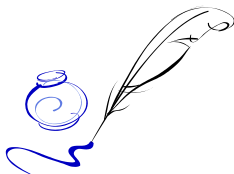

I would like to thank the following wineries that donated the wine for our event.

Adastra, Bacio Divino, Burgess Cellars, Castello di Amorosa, Ehlers Estate, Elisabeth Spencer, Green and Red Vineyard, Grgich Hills Estates, Heitz Cellars, Jansen, Joseph Phelps Vineyards, Judd's Hill, Mumm Vineyards, Paradigm, Rustridge, Saintsbury, Sequoia Grove, Trefethen, V. Sattui Winery, Waterstone, William Hill Estates.

Our fund raising event would not have been possible without the donation and our members and friends who purchased and sold tickets at the Wine Train Station. Thank you everyone.

Dick Bruechert,

NVGBS President

BEGINNERS GENEALOGY CLASS

We have scheduled a Beginners Class for two Saturdays, November 6 and 13. Registration is through the Napa Valley College web site or a form can be picked up at the Library. If you are interested, or know of someone who is interested in getting started in genealogy, please contact Mary Herzog at herzogm@pacbell.net

Jabber from Janice

Well, I did it! My first trip to Salt Lake City LDS Family History Library was for 9 days (may have been 3 too many as I was exhausted). I stayed at the Plaza Hotel which is right by the Library; super location. The light rail to a shopping and dining area is right outside the front door of the hotel and was free!

Here is what I learned:

- ◆ Take whatever you like into the library: pencils, bottle of water, cookies, notebooks, computer, camera to photo a page or two (or 30 in my case), USB memory stick (to copy what you find instead of paying to print it out, worked great for microfilm).
- ◆ Be very organized. Check the online catalog before your trip so you know just what you want to see. http://www.familysearch.org/eng/Library/FHLC/frameset\_fhlc.asp Print out a research list with the items you want to find from your catalog search with room to take notes as to how useful it was. Include any information for source notes and of course the catalog number.
- ◆ Do not expect to find your family in the Family Histories division (but it was fun looking).
- ◆ Take breaks: walk around, get a drink of water and a snack. We ate lunch most every day in the basement of the Church Office Bldg in Temple Square. Greatest cafeteria that I have ever seen, complete with entertainment and yummy, inexpensive food. You need a pass which is available at the Library greeter's desk (although no one asked to see it).
- ◆ Take some of the classes; many are offered each day.
- ◆ Ask for an appointment with someone who is a specialist in the area you are researching. I set up a consult with a wonderful young man who was an expert in Virginia research. I encouraged any of our group to join and we learned so much and got a very valuable tour of the Virginia section of the library.
- ◆ Talk with the people around you at the tables and in the stacks. I met a lady who was also researching Goochland County, Virginia. She was full of research info and would bring me books that she thought might be of use (and they were). She lived near Salt Lake City and even invited me to stay at her home on my next visit.
- ◆ Take your own pillow and an iPod with music. Helped me sleep better.

I look forward to my next trip and will be much better prepared. The highlight was finding a will and inventory from my 3rd great grandfather who died in 1811 in Goochland County. It proved that this was my 2nd great grandfather's family and pointed me onto other ancestors.

PS: Byutv has two interesting series: Ancestors (classes and information on all manner of subjects from Census, Land Research, Military Records, etc. and Generations Project which explores personal research. Check the shows and find the schedule at byutv.org.

Genealogy Resources

- ◆ GenealogyBank.com: Explore Your Family in History—Boasting the largest newspaper archive for family history research, this site is an invaluable resource for your research. Offering monthly, annual, and trial subscriptions, this site's ready access to over 2400 historical newspapers and documents will keep you coming back for more.
- ◆ Footnote.com :The Place for Original Historical Documents Online— Offering a search by names, events, or dates, this site also features a high level of user participation. Featuring over 2500 uploads by members per week, this membership site offers a chance for you to join an entire community of genealogy enthusiasts.
- ◆ Newspaper Abstracts: Finding Our Ancestors in the News!—As the name implies, this site lets you search newspapers by state, county, and event. Precise information is supplied about the paper itself, making it easier for you to obtain the full article.
- ◆ We Relate—As “the world's largest genealogy Wiki,” this site features pages for over 2 million people. The highlight of the site is its community portal, combining the features of information encyclopedias and social networking sites.
- ◆ FamilyLink.com: growing closer—One of the top 500 Web companies in the world, FamilyLink is a social networking site with over 31 million users. In its quest to help family members find each other, FamilyLink has defined over 150 million relationships since its inception in 2007.
- ◆ WorldVitalRecords.com—This searchable database features over a billion available records. Hosting several major collections as well as the latest in genealogy news, this site is an all-purpose stop for your research.
- ◆ Bureau of Land Management: General Land Office Records—This government-run site provides access to Federal land conveyance records for all Public Land States. This includes image access to over 3 million Federal land title records issued between 1820 and 1908, offering a visual tour of both federal and family histories.

Under Construction

Napa Valley Genealogy Library is undergoing some improvements. If you have been to the library lately you may have noticed the front lawn is missing. We are in the process of repairing the watering system and drought-tolerant plants will be planted over the next few months.

Inside the library we have moved the CD's. They are now located on the back wall of the computer room. We are in the process of finding new stands for the CD's. A task that is taking longer than expected. If anyone has an idea where to find stands that will fit on the shelves and hold the CD's upright please contact the library with the information.

Lost a living relative?

Try the reverse address searches at www.whitepages.com.

Enter the last known address, and the current resident will be presented.

Perhaps they know where your relative moved!

Our Yearly Dues Supports Our Library. You are Appreciated!
